Although it is said to be "one sketch a day" for those of us who don't get around to journaling everyday,
this book allows for a more flexible schedule and less pressure/guilt (for those who have such reactions...)
The cover is more of a hunter green than the teal~~

I love to draw with sharpies, ball point pens, or just a regular old pencil. I've started experimenting with some of the other pencils (2B, HB, 4B, etc.) as well as some charcoal pencils. We recently picked up the book "Drawing With Children," by Mona Brooks. I look forward to working my way through it.
