NC: We then looked at effective 1:1s and what that means and the regularity of those and the fact that having regular 1:1s as opposed to twice yearly appraisals helps to drive performance more effectively. PL: 1:1s or coaching sessions free up employees to share their ideas, their frustrations and career hopes with their managers in private.

Coaching Culture | Podcast | CIPD
Effective Modern Coaching has a lot of content and covers a lot of ground. And he says that if a coach's heart is in the right place, s/he can't screw it up. He argues against the coach trying too hard to do what he says and therefore creating interference in his/her performance as a coach.
