Gesture can be a natural form of expression or may be shaped by cultural codes. [F]or an action to be treated as a gesture it must have features that make it stand out as such. [5] He believes speech and gesture can combine to form utterances or a combination of movements that communicates meaning. Thus, it appears that a gesture must be noticed by a receiver in order for it to be considered a gesture.

A gesture is a form of non-verbal communication in which visible bodily actions communicate particular messages, either in place of speech or together and in parallel with spoken words. Gestures include movement of the hands , face , or other parts of the body .

~~Gesture - Welcome to World Mime Organisation~~

A gesture is a form of non-verbal communication or non-vocal communication in which visible bodily actions communicate particular messages, either in place of, or in conjunction with, speech. Gestures include movement of the hands, face, or other parts of the body. Gestures differ from physical non-verbal communication that does not communicate specific messages, such as purely expressive displays, proxemics, or displays of joint attention. Gestures allow individuals to communicate a variety of
