main character in this book, discovers that the Jesus he's been with is a fake, and goes searching for the real one, all the while encountering many other "imaginary Jesuses" along the way. It is semi-autobiographical in nature, and is often publicized as a "not-quite-true story."

Matt Mikalatos - Wikipedia

My Imaginary Jesus by Matt Mikalatos takes the reader on a journey of discovery as the narrator, Matt, searches for the real Jesus. This hilarious story sometimes borders on the absurd as it introduces a whole cast of imaginary Jesuses that attempt to fool people into believing they are the real Jesus.
