I first read this book when I was a kid and it continues to be my favourite Jacqueline Wilson book to this day. Lola Rose's character is fascinating: a shark phobia, an obsession with collage and forced to be the adult when her mother can't cope.

The story is told by Lola Rose, aged about 10 but acting as the adult in the family. Fortunately she has the sense to contact her mum's estranged sister, and Aunty Barbara comes to the rescue. Jacqueline Wilson demonstrates her skill by capturing the

As always Jacqueline Wilson has pitched this book perfectly. It has just the right contrast between the truth of domestic abuse and how it can cause mixed feelings and lots of upset and the story of Lola Rose. I used this book when I am working with young girls in particular and they have in turn signposted me to some of Jacqueline's other books.
