Persian Gulf Command I'd have thought the command's main role was to co-ordinate on logistics, primarily with the UK and the host nations. The railway through Iran was used for aid to the USSR and I have a vague recollection stats on this are in published histories. Iran was of course divided into British and Russian spheres of influence.

Eventually, Churchill created a separate Persian-Iraq military command to secure the area from any future Axis threats. The reason why Churchill felt Iran and Iraq were so important while the Axis were marching on Greece and across Libya were many. First, Iran and to a lesser degree Iraq were the major source of oil for the entire empire.
