Reviewed in the United Kingdom on 1 May 2011. A medieval land split by war, a hardened salloword, and lots of plotting among the nobility and knights. There's plenty of all of the above in "The River Kings' Road: A Novel of Ithelas." Liane Merciel's debut novel. It doesn't add anything new to the fantasy formulae, but it's a solid book with a rather scattered storyline, intriguing characters and weird magic.

Yeah they basically want Rain of Fire because it's a skill they use and it doesn't have fire yet. In the old days it was great for an AoE hit with some crowd control. I think we both agree Festive Spirit gives archers pretty much all the crowd control in PvE they need and RoH has redesigned RoA a...
