history of women has been one of submission. Marriages were once arranged and women were expected to be obedient to their husbands. Women didn't typically work outside of the home and were expected to raise children.

~~Women's Liberation Movement~~

A political statement was made during the Women's Liberation Movement between the 1960s and 1970s. It was that of self-presentation. How women looked was considered something that hindered the way they felt. Women during that time rebelled against the norms and cut their hair and opted to dress like men

The Women's liberation movement in North America was part of the feminist movement in the late 1960s and through the 1980s. Derived from the civil rights movement, student movement and anti-war movements, the Women's Liberation Movement took rhetoric from the civil rights idea of liberating victims of discrimination from oppression. They were not interested in reforming existing social structures, but instead were focused on changing the perceptions of women's place in
